Isiah 43:2 When you pass through waters, I will be with you; through rivers, you shall not be swept away.

Let us begin with an I love you and Our Father..

(I am shown a vision of a little boy placing a boat or a raft into the stream, and he watches it float, moving along the shallow water.)

The Raft.

You have been given the vision of a child with a toy raft, floating and moving in My Will for this raft represents a child of My Divine Will.

My children, I'm here with you, and today I represent the little boy who has formed with My hands a toy raft which is like a boat; I constructed it with love and gave it what it needs to keep it afloat and be sustained in My Will. This toy that I created is an example of you who will walk in My Will, you see this toy floats on the shallow stream and the current takes it away as it floats downstream and all of its actions of bobbing up and down, tilting back and forth, and swaying side to side are acts done in My Will.

I formed it to sustain all things, just as I have formed each of you to be sustained in My Will, giving you everything you need to be united to Me.

Yes, united to Me, within the workings of the Divine Will. The waters of life are like the stream - they can become treacherous at times or even still and stagnant. This is like your life's course for each day may come as a surprise to you because you do not know what to expect. When one walks in My Will, the waters of life will not be disturbed for you, and just like the raft that stays afloat during these times, we will accomplish all things together.

I come to you as a little child today, asking you to spend time with Me so we can become friends as we play together, for giving Me your time allows Me to nurture you and show you My life. My innocence as a child is what I want each of you to become, then together, we will climb up onto our Mama's lap, and She will nurture you in the Divine Will. Remember, together we can accomplish all things for the betterment of mankind. I am with you always. Jesus Your Crucified King †

Mark 6:31 He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

Let us begin with an I love you and an Our Father..

The Lodge.

Today we will talk about the lodge, be at peace knowing you are in My Will, let us begin. What is a lodge? A place of safety, a place where one can rest, a place where others can gather. A lodge is also a place where society has no distractions, depending on its location, usually, this is a remote place. This lodge I speak of is at everyone's disposal it is where one can find a place of tranquility and rest; it is a place where one can find God. I want each of My children to find their individual lodge to make a place for their hearts to become one with Me, away from the world's noise and distractions. My children, this will please Me greatly, taking the time to place you and Me together in silence and peace. I want My children in unity with their Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Place yourself within silence by creating a place where you can be alone so we can converse and be united, so My Will can be made known to you. My Native American Indian children had created a sweat lodge to unite themselves with their Creator. They entered the lodge to be purified of their impurities, a place used for meditation and finding union with their God.

One must be silent in order to enter into the depths of My Heart, where My Kingdom Will reign forever.

As you adapt into a place of silence all things will become clear to you and you will understand My call that has been placed within your heart, for this grace is given in silence and peace. My priest sons must also have a lodge, a place to come to be in union with Me, to contemplate in silence. All creation is in union with Me the Creator when there is silence. Be brave individuals and ask yourself this question. What do I need to do to become one with God my Creator? How can I become one in the silence of my heart with God? This is accomplished by allowing yourself a place of silence. Again, I ask for you to become My children in the Silence of your hearts united to Me. I will be giving you more grace, more peace in unity with My Will in the days ahead, but first you need a place to call your own a lodge for this is a place where our hearts can be one. We will build the Kingdom in the silence of our hearts together, for each act in the Divine Will is an act that will be remembered for all eternity, becoming children of My Will within the silence of hearts. Remember, every act done with love in My Will is an act for all humanity. I am with you always.

John 15:13 No one has greater love than this; to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Let us begin with an I love you and an Our Father..

The Heroic Virtue of Love.

What is virtue? It is a gift from God that imitates the presence of God in the soul, establishing My presence in different and unique acts done in union with the soul. (You My daughter are experiencing My presence in this act of love as we interact with each other in union, as you allow My presence within – virtue an act of grace.) Heroic virtue is one showing courage by a profound act of bravery by stepping out in faith to express heroism to another individual with charity. This heroic virtue forms a great grace within the soul that directs the individual towards the direction of sainthood.

(Jesus shows me a vision of a man attempting to rob a store. The man pulls out a gun to use in the robbery to steal money from the store. The man confronts the cashier and demands money or else the man will shoot the cashier. A customer in the store comes forward and tells the man to stop and spare the life of the cashier, but the man does not listen. The man shoots the gun to take the life of the cashier and the brave customer steps between the man and cashier to spare the person's life. This customer has now taken the place of the cashier and becomes a heroic victim in an offering of his life for another. I then heard the words "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends".) Jesus continues speaking...

And what a greater love is this than one to offer their own life for that of a stranger. This is one example of the virtue of heroic love – laying down your life for another. You see My children true love comes as a sacrifice for the good of the other. Many of My saints chose love over hate and grace flowed in their being, by choosing Me to serve over that of the world. I want all My children rich and poor to serve Me with love, so all may receive My grace. You may not know how to love, but you must know that I loved you first. I created you out of love. Most people cannot conceive the concept of laying down self for another. Being merciful is also an act of love, because when you are showing mercy for another individual you are acting in love. I want you to remember that I came first out of love of the Father. I am the true love of the Father, for through the Father came a sacrifice of love – for the Father sacrificed His only Son out of love for you that Redemption would be given to all His children who believe in Him. And if you believe in Me you believe in the one that sent Me – God the Father.

My children you are all called to love – this act is one with Me when you open your heart and accept all I give with faith. Do not think that love is stagnant. No, true love is ever flowing like a spring that never runs dry. You must be true to your faith and continue loving your neighbor and as you continue this love your acts will grow in the Divine Will, because when you are truly fused in Me all love comes forth to serve as a conduit of continual grace for all generations – past – present and future. Divine Will is love that covers everything and is unimaginable for you to comprehend, for one can never be without in My Will. My love came from within as an outward sign of My acts while I was upon earth and this was the highest form of love one could give by My passion and death. I rose again on the third day in full form as a dimension of My love and there I began bringing all into My heavenly realm in this great act of My life, death and resurrection. Believe that I came out of love for you. Now take a moment and ask yourself. Have I loved God in others? Have I given my all out of sacrifice, showing love to others, through God's love? If your answer is Yes, then you are acting with heroic love, this means you are sacrificing your love for another. I leave you with this – Do not think love is an act that pleases someone, for love is an act that offers oneself to another even if the giver has to suffer for the other for nothing in return. Remember, I suffered for the other in an act of love. I am with you always.

Malachi 3:17 They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, my own special treasure, on the day when I take action. And I will have compassion on them, as a man has compassion on his son who serves him.

Let us begin with an I love you and an Our Father..

The Vault.

My daughter, today we will discuss the vault of Heaven.

(I am shown a vision of clouds in the sky and as the clouds part I see a huge golden vault. This vault has a large golden door with a circular handle. This resembles a bank vault but massive in size. I hear the words "Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the vault of Heaven. And the earth is filled with Thy glory.") Jesus continues...

My children, do you keep your possessions in a secure place? Or do you keep them where others can take them? The things you treasure the most should be kept close and in a safe place. I keep all My treasures safe and close to My heart. You My children are the treasures of My heart, for all My children in Heaven are kept safe and close to Me, secure where no one can disturb or harm them, all are stored in the vault of Heaven. I am using this vision to show you the importance of keeping things safe, on earth humans use many things to keep precious valuables stored and safe from thieves. Your soul is much more valuable than any earthly treasure. I want to explain the importance of your soul – this is a precious gift I have given you, for all souls are My treasure and one day I will receive this treasure back when you are called to your heavenly home and I will store your soul in My vault – the vault of Heaven. This My children is where treasures abound – the perfection of My creation resides here with Me and no one can enter, only if permitted. The vault of Heaven is guarded by My sentinel angels, they are the "watchers" for they watch and protect, they are the angels that stand guard and will alert Heaven as needed. Many angels reside here where My presence reigns, for I command them all. Be vigilant My children knowing this is something for you to understand – ask and I will give you the grace to comprehend. My place of peace and security is Heaven, and I keep all My children in Heaven safe with an abundance of grace. Your presence is only allowed if you have been purified from sin. This means I created you in My image to be a living reflection of God, but your sinfulness has darkened your soul. You will enter the vault of Heaven once you have been purged and cleansed of all sin, then made new again just as you were at Baptism.

Your fathers before you – My prophets were not able to enter Heaven until I came to claim it in My divinity. I died and rose that you may obtain this heavenly place of love and tranquility. This vault of Heaven is a place where all proclaim Me as their God, choosing Me over the world. I do not allow everything in Heaven. No, only souls who have truly been washed clean and allowed My love and mercy to penetrate their hearts. You will be made new in My love and in My Will in life eternal. The door of Heaven is an entrance into eternity where all who will one day come to live with Me their God. I am with you always.
