My dearest child, I wish to speak to you about the Lion and the Dragon. Today child, believe and know I am with you, be at peace little one.

There is great turmoil coming, much will be in chaos and destruction, no fear. This great turmoil will come then peace, this peace will last for a short time, then will come nation against nation and men will fight the great dragon who comes from the East. He will rise up to destroy much, but God will prevail, the Lion will roar bringing justice and the dragon will be destroyed.

You My daughter will go through great trials, but all will prevail for I will bring you to My place of refuge, as I will others. During this time, you will prepare a place for this community of love in which all will dwell and I will bring My love and My kingdom. This My daughter, comes with great responsibility and loyalty to God, one must be an example to others. No other time is as important as this one, for much is to be done. You will lead the others and help to achieve God's Will. Sr. Mary Ephrem, My little saint of the New Millennium, and My little Luisa will be there to assist your community and My love for you is great.

The parents of many little children will be taken during this time and these children will be given new hope for tomorrow. I will raise up these little ones as My children of the Divine Will. You need to prepare, for I am sending those to assist you. Be ready for My Immaculate Heart will reign. America will stand tall and protected as this is Mine and My Immaculate Heart will reign, for America will be the guiding light to many. This My daughter is the Will of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

Your Mother Mary †

Personal Note from SDOL Messenger: We do not know the time of these events, only Heaven knows, but we can prepare by living for Mother Mary and God's Divine Will. A few things below to think about.

1. Turmoil & chaos – war?
2. Peace for a short period of time, prepare a place of refuge / community of love the Benedictine Divine Will Center.
3. Raising up the children teaching them the Faith and the Divine Will.
4. The Dragon comes to destroy – world war and the Lion bring justice and peace.
5. Reign of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the triumph for the children of the Divine Will.

There is an underground movement going to disrupt your government's efforts in cleaning out the evil to serve the people. This evil will come after those who have suppressed their evil movement, it is a sinister plan, but I will uphold justice and prosecute those who have led others astray. Your country is divided, but this division is of pride and evil intent. No other country has the wealth as you do, the USA will stop funding their plans to destroy. I am taking My power to a new level and My angels will be of aid to help suppress this evil. America will be brought to new heights and a new way of life in a country who honors God once more. So many have fallen asleep and have allowed other influences to keep their children deceived by evil acts and allowed the teaching of illicit acts and bribery to be the norm.

I have come to tell you that America is about to fall, but I will build this country up once more. TRUST NO ONE BUT GOD. Believe in My hand of mercy and know that I am with you, for it is through your prayers and acts of My Will that have saved your country from total destruction. I am giving you another chance to make things new again, to be a light to all nations. America take this opportunity to redeem oneself as a nation under God for the Father's greater glory. The Father is your anchor of hope and will be there for His children who have pleaded for mercy in a time of great persecution to come. My America this is your chance to prove your greatness as a nation and a living hope to all the world in the light of Christ – walk with Me to the Father and embrace His love in honor and gratitude.

I am Jesus Your Crucified King †
