John 5:24 Very truly I tell you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life.

Children of the Divine Will I come to you today with words of thanksgiving and love. I have been helping each of you in your acts and I am pleased that you have called on Me to assist you further into building the kingdom of the Divine Will. My heart beats with love and joy that you are listening to what I have taught Luisa and following her life in your acts with Me in the rounds of My Will. Thank you, children, this is monumental because more of My children are now being given a second chance at their time in purgatory and with Me in their perpetual rest. They are able to achieve what you are achieving, these are the souls who have been lost, the souls whose earthly lives were lived for the world and not for God. These souls now have a second chance by your acts building for each of them in your rounds a new life in creation for the kingdom to come. Believe children, your works are helping the living and the deceased – all humanity. My grace I give comes to each one of you through the heart of My Mother – this is a portal of grace for humanity, and She bears it for all. You are receiving this grace for yourselves as well as for others. Continue your work for souls in Luisa's divine work.

Romans 8:26-27 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

Today children of My Divine Will, My heart is open to all, please be attentive and open your hearts in order to enter into My heart. The heart is My creation of love, there I dwell within the soul and My heart is alive within each of you. It is by creation from the Almighty God that your heart beats and generates My love. You were created to love, for this My children is an act in My Will. Believe and know that I your God have created you to love in My Will. If you take time out to be united in My Will you are truly loving Me and by loving Me you are acting in My Will. Now children remember to love your neighbor in My Will, for each of you needs compassion and love for the other. This means forgiving those you have wronged and those who have wronged you, taking the time to comfort the lost and embracing the heart broken. These children of mine are wandering the world searching for an answer and they do not know the way. When a child is born the mother is in awe at the creation of her little one and shows love for her child. There are many who have been harmed emotionally and physically not knowing the love of a mother and they only see themselves with a painful past.

Please children be My love for others and embrace all lost souls. This is My Will for you to become Christ to others. Remember I was also compassionate to you. Do I not love all, even My persecutors? You My children need to become a mirror image of My Will. Trust and become little in My eyes, for the littlest of souls in their acts are the holiest, these are saints of My Will.

Luke 12:34 For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

Today child My words come to the heart of those who wish to listen. Be attentive My children do not waste your time on things that are not of My liking, things that have no merit, things that are not of My Will. I wish to speak to you about the treasures of the heart. This is important for you must listen attentively with an open heart that will bring forth My word to others. I want My children to be versed in My word and in My Will. This means praying the liturgy of the hours with great attentiveness to My word in the psalms and scripture; meditating as you read. This will awaken your soul generating My words in your heart and will give you merit and contentment of the things I wish to bring to others. Listening with the heart will bring you closer to Me and will bring about a holiness in My Will. I want you to treasure these things of the heart by placing yourself within My Will and all will be given to you and to those you encounter. How can a man learn to walk in the Will of the Father, if he does not take to heart the word of God? You need to take to heart the word of God My Psalms and scriptures, and the writings of little Luisa, for Luisa took into her heart all I gave her in My Will. I want all My children to be like Luisa, for this is the treasure of My heart, that you become one with Me. Please be attentive to all I give, mentoring you into Sons and Daughters of My heart, the littlest of souls of My Will will become the holiest of souls versed in My word as the saints of My Divine Will.

1 John 4:7-8 Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.

In this morning hour you will know of My love. I say to you children I love with a heart full of love for all of humanity. My heart beats with love and I use this love as grace to give to all My children as nourishment to love in My Will preparing each of you to love others as I have loved you. Do you not need someone to love, so they could love in return? I have created man in My image to love as I have loved, and this means laying down one's life for another out of pure love. No man can give love without having love. Why do you want to separate yourselves from being together or use one against the other? Do you not see that humans are meant to be with each other? Give yourselves a companion to love, for you need each other to express your fellowship of love. Satan wishes to separate you from everything in your lives, but I say you are all the same, living and breathing in human form, a creature of God. You are a special creation of God created to live, dwell and love God your Father on earth as it is in heaven. Make a dwelling place for God within you so you will become a living temple of the Holy Spirit, a place where God-The Trinity dwells. This My children is what I ask of you today, to love one another as I continue to love you. Bring peace, joy, and always love to everyone you encounter and remember,

I am with you children, for this New Year brings great tragedy to your country, pray for your country, fuse your country America into the heart of My Mother Mary.

I am here to tell you of My love, the love that no one else can give you in proportion to My love, this is an unconditional love. I am here with you and commit My love to you and to all My children, even those who reject Me. My love is going to permeate you and go out into the world for My Will to reign. It will change human nature for all those who accept Me. I will be giving you more grace and this will help humanity into this transition that is taking place. This transition must happen in order for the world to become new again. I want all My children to be prepared and ready. You will begin to see this transition and I will assist all of you. This means you must accept My Will and be ready for a transfer of wealth. I am using this portion of wealth to assist in building My Kingdom on earth.

What is this wealth transfer I speak of? First and most important is the wealth of your Catholic faith and second is your financial provision, both will help you to build the kingdom and build a stronger faith within My church. Through this process will come the renewal of the church – My church will be purified and made new again. I have prepared you, now is the time, be brave and have faith trusting in My provision spiritually and physically for each one of you. This is My Will that you build My Kingdom the living church within you, for the writings of Luisa are the renewal of the church, for Thy Kingdom Come Thy Will be done within each one of you. You are the Children of the Renewal; you are church living and breathing within My Divine Will. I am with you always...Jesus Your Crucified King†
